- 1 Cidade de Deus

Schools of Music and Citizenship

Serving around 2,000 students in six Brazilian states, the project is present in 27 low-income communities, 21 of which are in Rio de Janeiro and the others are in the states of São Paulo, Bahia, Brasília, Santa Catarina and Ceará.

In the latter half of 2022, the project arrived in Portugal, specifically in the city of Braga. This was a major milestone in our mission to globalize our operations and take on the challenge of reaching new beneficiaries.

Beirart

In its eighth edition, the Beirart project provides free handicraft, entrepreneurship and sales techniques classes to women in Cidade de Deus (City of God), with the aim of enabling them to generate income through the commercialization of their products.

In 2022, sustainability was a central focus of the project, with handicraft workshops focused on the reuse of materials for the manufacture of pieces that will be exposed to the public in events that will take place during 2023.

The Network of Organizations for Good

Two awards were announced for social organizations operating in Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo.

Rio de Janeiro Award

In its 10th edition of the annual small grants process selected five organizations that received support of R$10,000 each, totaling R$50,000 (US$10,000) of resources destined for community-based organizations, a record volume in the history of awards in the network's public notices of Good.

São Paulo Award

In an effort to recognize and reward initiatives that acted to combat the educational gap in São Paulo's public school system during the pandemic, the Superação Educação (Education and Overcoming) award was launched. The action will allocate R$ 2,000 to three social organizations in the city of São Paulo in January 2023.
